

Interreg

Co-funded by the European Union

North-West Europe

BONSAI

Empowering future water professionals to face climate challenges

BONSAI prepares students and young professionals to protect North-West Europe from rising seas and climate change. Through summer schools, participants step onto real dikes and flood defenses, guided by experts who bridge the gap between theory and practice.

Armed with hands-on skills, expanded knowledge, confidence, and a strong network, this future generation steps forward as water leaders, ready to shape a safer, more resilient tomorrow.

Lead partner:

Foundation for Applied
Water Research (NL)

bonsai.nweurope.eu

Photo ©: BONSAI

